The concise dictionary of religion:

A follower of Jesus Christ. Anyone who through faith in the atoning Death of Jesus Christ, the incarnate Son of God has had their sin forgiven by God, and been born again by the holy Ghost.

My commentary

- MY understanding is this, is through the knowledge and understanding of who Jesus is, “the son of the living God” who loved His creation Man so much that he chose to come (after the fall of Adam) to this earth in the form of that same sinful flesh to be an example to this world that you can live a life of Love, humility, and obedience against all the temptation and desires of the sinful carnality of your mind. In other words, to overcome your ‘sometime’ program and hostile/disobedient nature which that you have a tendency to give into. Side bar { Jesus is God in the same flesh as Man} John1:1

My Commentary

To anyone who reads and understands what I'm about to say on this part of this topic is this:

To come into the full knowledge of who Jesus Christ, who is God in the flesh and is the mediator between God and man, and to believe in him and his teaching of and begin by walking and living according to his word in the KJV Bible! But also, in the Word of God it says once you believe, then you must repent, be baptize in the one name under heaven by which you much be saved and be filled with Holy Ghost – and that is Jesus Christ for the remission of sin!
